About flowr

flowr is a self-care routine planner for iOS that helps you actually implement the routines you've been collecting. Built for Millennial and Gen Z women who treat self-care as a ritual, flowr gives your routines a home ? out of your screenshots and notes and into your real life.

What flowr does

- ? Build routines across 10 categories ? Skincare, Body Care, Hair Care, Nail Care, Oral Care, Supplements, Medications, Exercise, Wellness, and Other
- ? Schedule each routine your way ? daily, weekly, every 2 weeks, monthly, or by cycle phase
- ? Customize each step individually
- ? Guided routine builder ? name, schedule, steps, and products
- ? Tag products to routine steps and rate them Love It, Like It, or Not For Me
- ? Sync routines to your cycle ? menstrual and lunar tracking
- ? See what's coming up today ? Up next, plus morning, afternoon, and evening. Hold to reorder your day
- ? Opt into gentle start and finish reminders
- ? Share a routine with a privacy-safe link ? Add to My Routines
- ? Toggle or duplicate routines without starting from scratch
- ? Browse your full self-care calendar
- ? 14-day free trial, no credit card required

About the Founder

Brittany Theodore is the founder of flowr and the sole developer behind Petal Studios LLC, a Delaware-based independent software company. She built flowr because she kept saving self-care routines she wanted to start ? only to lose track or forget all about them.
